No Meeting This Friday

Enjoy Your Labor Day Holiday

We will not be meeting this Friday, August 30, in honor of the Labor Day Holiday. We hope that you and your family have a safe and happy Labor Day weekend, and look forward to seeing you at Rotary next Friday morning, when we can all learn more about Be the Voice.

Fellowship Time

Please join us September 14 for a night of merriment, good food and a wonderful entertainment spectacular: Meredeth Wilson's The Music Man at the City Springs Theater in Sandy Springs. We checked the online box office this morning and there are still a few tickets left for the Saturday night performance. You can call the theater at (404) 477-4365 or go online to buy tickets.

Getting to Know You

Charlie Augello, #1 Deli and #1 Community Servant

Thirty eight years ago, Charlie and Anita Augello opened E 48th Street Market in Dunwoody. Fast forward to today, and they're not just running Georgia's Best Deli (as recognized by Taste of Home) – they are pillars of our community!

Charlie first became aware of Rotary while in high school and then shortly after he started his restaurant, a couple customers invited him to attend a Rotary meeting. Back then, he was focused on his new business and couldn't commit to joining a club. By 2009 the restaurant was established, and he was looking to get involved in a way that gives back to the community that has been such a part of his success.

His favorite activity through the years has been working with USO and then more recently helping to start Anchor Place Respite Dunwoody. He especially likes how the finances support local and also international causes and recognizes that through Rotary, your donation dollars go a long way. Charlie likes the social events and hopes the club continues to find reasons to get together for dinners and other events.

In recognition of their incredible contributions, club president Jack Sparks created the "Charlie and Anita Augello People of Action Award" in June 2024. This annual award will celebrate members who passionately improve Dunwoody and the world.

Service and Fellowship

Know Someone Who Would Like to Be an Anchor Place Volunteer?

Do you know a family member, neighbor, or friend who might be interested in joining our fabulous volunteer team? Participation is fun and rewarding - offering joy to our friends and a needed break for caregivers.

Please pass along information about our next volunteer training - scheduled for Tuesday, September 17, 10am-12noon. If you can help us spread the word to your faith or civic community, please do. Mary Cohen is happy to speak to anyone personally.

Save the Date!

Welcome Our Students - October 6!

We're planning a party - on Sunday, October 6 at Meghan Berry's home - to welcome our GRSP student and our Rotary Youth Exchange student. It's a time for fun and fellowship - and to provide a true Southern welcome to these wonderful new members of our Dunwoody Family of Rotary. More details to follow soon - for now pencil in the date and plan to join us.
